AUUF Services • 10:00 A.M.

August 7 “UU Film Festival”

The big day! Debut of our very own AUUF 3-minute movies! Opinions will be voiced, praise will be offered, prizes will be awarded. Don't miss it.

August 14 “Poem Sunday”

A Participatory Service

Giving of the Plate (Alabama Rural Ministry*)—
Potluck—Board Meeting

The perfect late summer service! Bring your favorite poem or reading to share. A simple but always enjoyable service.

August 21 “In-Gathering”

Our annual coming together for the beginning of the Fellowship year. Bring our gathered water, real or virtual. Bring your summer stories to share.

August 28 Service by Lucia Hermo Public Advocacy Director for the Alabama ACLU

Lucia Hermo joined the ACLU of Alabama as the Outreach Paralegal in January 2014. Prior to her work in Alabama, she served as the Administrative Assistant for the National ACLU office's Affiliate Support and Advocacy department. She graduated from American University in 2010 with a degree in International Relations and is bilingual in Spanish and English.

REMINDER!

Choir will begin meeting again
Wednesday August 3, 6:30-8,
in the sanctuary.
Please join – the more, the louder!

The Auburn Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is a community dedicated to affirming a reverence for life and enriching the spiritual lives of its members. Here we honor the one and the many; here we welcome a diversity of thoughts, beliefs and passions; here we speak without fear and listen with open hearts. We gather to care for one another, share our burdens and joys, and celebrate life's passages. Strengthened by this fellowship, we bring a liberal religious presence to our larger community and work for a safe and just world.

RE/DRE

...on Religious Education

From Julie Meadows, the Director of Religious Education

I hope everyone has had a good summer. I'm sure the kids wish it could keep going but August brings the return of school and regular schedules. It also brings Ingathering and our reconnection with AUUF. However, we still have another month before Sundae Sunday, Pinwheels for Peace and the first day of RE. Next month the calendar for all things RE will be included in the newsletter. For this month, I hope you will enjoy the photos of the kids enjoying RE and all will begin to look forward to September and anticipate our next RE year.

We are starting community dream work based on Jeremy Taylor's book; Dream Work, Techniques for Discovering the Creative Power of Dreams. Many of you may have learned the basics of archetypes and learned the art of symbolic dream interpretation with Dale Harrison. This 8-week class will open our Fellowship to a new world of the creative in a way not studied by our community as a whole. Dreamers will meet weekly or bi-monthly to share their dreams and get a sense of their meanings. The dream group will post the dreams on a blog or AUUF Facebook page, asking for feedback from the Dreaming UU Fellowship. As we dream together, our common values will become evident and a vision for our future will emerge from our common dream consciousness. This technique, outlined in Mr. Taylor's book, has been used to discover common goals and shared values in other communities around the country.

If you would like to know more about this new group approach to dream work, please join us on the following Sundays at the Busch Center. The meetings will be held Sunday, July 17 and 24, and August 14 and 21 at 3 pm. We look forward to dreaming our future and having active dream groups at the Auburn Unitarian Fellowship again.

Water Art to Grace Our Walls

For our annual In Gathering that happens in August, the aesthetics committee has selected 3 artists, Cindy Reinke, Conrad Ross, and Terry Rodriguez, to exhibit works of art with a water theme. The exhibit will be up through September. At this time there is not a scheduled reception.

If you have ideas for art exhibits, would like to assemble a special altar for a particular service, or would like to join the aesthetics committee this year to help plan and arrange things, please contact me.
